Background

The Office of the Commissioner for Older People for Northern Ireland (COPNI) was established by the Commissioner for Older People Act (Northern Ireland) 2011, which took effect from January 2011. COPNI is an executive Non-Departmental Public Body (NDPB) sponsored by the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister (OFMDFM) until May 2016 and then transferred sponsorship to the new Department for Communities. Claire Keatinge, the inaugural Commissioner for Older People completed her term of office in November 2015. OFMDFM completed a public appointment recruitment exercise in March 2016 and the new Commissioner for Older People, Eddie Lynch has taken up post in June 2016.

In the interim the Chief Executive and Senior Management Team have drafted this business plan proposing the work to be taken forward from April 2016 to March 2017. This is the final version of the business plan, agreed with and approved by the Commissioner, taking into account the transfer to Department of Communities and certainty provided by the Department on the allocation of funding for this business year at £817k. The Commissioner wishes to take forward other work in the year that is unaffordable within the current funding allocation. Funding for that work will be sought in-year (2016-17). Should additional funding be made available, subject to business cases and other evidence of need, an addendum to this plan will be provided to the Department.

A previous version of the plan was submitted to OFMDFM in January 2016, in accordance with the requirements set out in the Management Statement and Financial Memorandum between the organisation and its then sponsoring department.

Corporate Plan

The inaugural Corporate Plan 2013-15, Hope, Confidence and Certainty linked the actions of the Commissioner directly to the statutory duties and powers set out in the Commissioner for Older People for Northern Ireland Act 2011.

That Corporate Plan set out the key objectives to be achieved by the Commissioner in the first term of office. These objectives were to:

1. Promote positive attitudes towards and about older people;
2. Review the adequacy and effectiveness of law and policy in relation to older people;

3. Promote the provision of opportunities for, and the elimination of, discrimination against older people;
4. Encourage good practice in the treatment of older people; and
5. Ensure effective, efficient and economical good practice in corporate governance.

At the time of drafting this business plan, a new set of Corporate Plan priorities is well advanced and the Commissioner is spending the early autumn engaging with older people on those priorities. When the engagement is complete the Commissioner will submit a new draft Corporate Plan to the minister for Communities for approval and published thereafter. The new Corporate Plan will cover the period 2016-2020.

International Framework

COPNI's work is underpinned by the UN Principles for Older Persons (1991). These international standards are important as COPNI assesses how well public bodies and other organisations deliver services for older people here in Northern Ireland.

Business Plan 2016/17

This business plan sets out the business activities that can be taken forward in 2016/17. As with previous business plans, it identifies the key programmes of work to be undertaken and the targets to be met during the course of the year. The purpose of the business plan is to clearly demonstrate the level of progress required in-year towards the achievement of the Commissioner's priority objectives. Progress towards the achievement of these targets and objectives will be monitored closely and reported on throughout the business year.

The Chief Executive will ensure appropriate monthly, quarterly and annual performance management processes are implemented as necessary.

Internal Unit Plans

This business plan is supported internally by detailed plans at sub-division level and individual project plans where appropriate. These are developed by each division head and agreed with all members of the team taking forward the work. In turn each plan filters down to individual work plans and personal agreements of the Commissioner's staff. All internal planning includes an analysis of the risks attached to each individual project.

Internal plans have been reviewed and amended in accordance with this amended business plan and budget.

Resource Assumptions

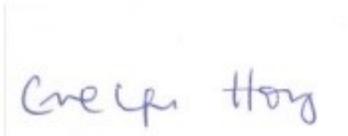

At the time of review (August 2016) COPNI has been informed that the budget for 2016/17 is £817,000. This comprises £807,000 resource and £10,000 depreciation. The budget broadly covers three elements of expenditure, staff costs (£635,000), overheads (£161,000) and programme costs (£21,000). In the last three years all possible efficiencies in staff costs and overheads have been made. The baseline funding provided in 2016/17 remains very challenging. Underfunding at this level directly affects the capacity of the organisation to fulfil the statutory duties set out in the Commissioner for Older People (NI) Act 2011. The Commissioner and the Department for Communities are in negotiation to increase funding in-year, should funds become available.

Operational work which is of a day-to-day or continuous nature can be taken forward this year. This includes legal casework dealing with enquiries from older people, research and consultation-response capacity of the research and policy advice team and the operational aspects of the governance of the organisation. This also included all of the governance work set out in Priority 5, which is essential to comply with all Accounting Officer responsibilities and Managing Public Money NI. A proportionate approach is taken but this work is inevitably expensive for the size and scale of this organisation.

The second type of work that has been prioritised in this business plan is work that either progresses the development, consultation and engagement with older people on the new Commissioner's Corporate Plan, or that underpins projects to be undertaken in the new Corporate Plan that require immediate commencement, such as research by technical experts.

A budget is included at the end of this plan, attaching budget lines to the specific pieces of work that can be taken forward within the limited available resources.

COPNI will continue to exercise flexibility around the movement of budget and human resources across the business plan as required. Any other external sources of funding that may be available will be explored but prudence is required in considering non-governmental sources of funding that could impact the reputation or independence of the Commissioner.
