ARAC 06/20/3b NOTED

Agenda Item 4: Matters Arising not already on the Agenda
There were no matters arising.

Agenda Item 5: Commissioner’s Update

a) Engagement
As Covid 19 has halted engagements the Commissioner outlined the high number of media requests he has given including 13 TV interviews, 65 radio interviews e.g. BBC Newsline, TalkBack, Belfast Telegraph, RTE etc. COPNI has also featured in 95 press articles. The Commissioner outlined that in N.I 80% of people who have died from Covid 19 were over 75 years of age and 50% of all Covid 19 deaths have been in care home settings. The Commissioner updated the members following his recent meeting with DoH.

b) Accountability Meeting
The Accountability meeting was held on 26 May 2020 via Zoom. All accountability papers were provided for this meeting, however the discussion was mainly about the challenges, risks and impact of Covid 19 on the work of the Commissioner’s office.

Agenda Item 6: Chief Executive’s Update – Emerging Issues

a) Working from Home
The Chief Executive reported a smooth transition to the new working arrangements. It has been a good test of the business continuity plan.

b) Staffing Issues
Recruitment for two Legal Officers is progressing. Shortlisting has taken place and interviews will take place using Zoom. When this is complete the recruitment of the job share Office Manager will take place. Consideration will then be given to the Administration Officer post

NOTED
(maternity cover) and whether this will proceed. Lisa Rice, Communications & Engagement Manager has given birth to a baby boy & the members passed on their congratulations. The team workload is disproportionate as the Legal and Communications & Engagement teams are exceptionally busy and the remainder of staff are working around 80% of capacity.

c) Senior Management Team
The Senior Management Team have daily meetings via Zoom and records have been kept regarding decisions made.

d) Finance and Expenditure 2019/20
Helen Gault detailed that there were year-end pressures – both resource and capital. (£7k and £2k) These have been advised to DfC. Joe Campbell asked about the fruitless payments regarding non-attendance at a conference in London, their treatment in the financial statements and the treatment of year end pressures. Evelyn Hoy advised the decision not to travel was taken due to Covid 19 and payments were non-refundable. H Gault explained that the fruitless payments would be classified in the expenditure note – travel, conferences and other staff costs. There would also be a special payments note. With regard to the year-end pressures, this has been highlighted to the department and COPNI are waiting for advice as to any further action required.

e) Finance and Expenditure 2020/21
Helen Gault outlined the key points to note. The main item was that capital expenditure of £1k has been made in replacement IT equipment to allow working from home. It was highlighted that DfC has approved expenditure of £10k capital at risk.

f) Quarterly Performance Report January – March 2020
The report was noted.

g) Quarterly Assurance Statement January – March 2020
The report was noted.

h) Business Plan 2020/21 – Progress on Objectives
Evelyn Hoy discussed the plan in detail. Covid 19 has impacted on the engagements we attend and COPNI’s engagements will change but may not necessarily decrease. There is a need to consider the length of time people will be affected by the virus and how COPNI can provide support.

i) Complaints
There were no complaints in the period.

Agenda Item 7: Risk Matters

a) Corporate Risk Register Quarter 1 2020/21
Evelyn Hoy outlined the main points from the register, highlighting that covid 19 risks had been added in line with the categories of risks outlined in the risk register. Dolores O’Reilly enquired about the information from staff exit interviews and Evelyn Hoy confirmed this information is circulated to the Senior Management Team but that staff progression is limited in COPNI due to the size of the organisation. Evelyn Hoy advised there was a data breach and the investigation is ongoing. Joe Campbell enquired about the data breach & Evelyn Hoy advised she will update ARAC once the investigation is complete.

Agenda Item 8: Update from Department for Communities

There was nothing further to report.

Agenda Item 9: Update from Northern Ireland Audit Office

Andrew Moore advised the audit strategy will remain and that NIAO have experienced delays while working from home in receiving documents back from other organisations. Joe Campbell asked if there was a risk to the audit timeline and Andrew replied there is no change anticipated but will contact COPNI if things change.

Agenda Item 10: Update from Internal Audit
